CHAPTER I
INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background Reason of Choosing the Title

Many literary works like novels have been adapted into movies. Movie is a personal expression of feeling or imagination. Movie is a part of prose from beside short story, experience, idea, motivation, or real story.

In many ways, movie can bring such a change in history of mass media. This audio-visual technic of approach is being used in almost entire countries, not only shows some entertainment, but also contains education and variety of advantages that can be used to learn easily.

Films makers must have this aspect to make a great movie, such as: theme, character, plot and setting. The most necessary is character especially main character. Without this, audience will not follow the plot of the story correctly, and information that exist will not be delivered perfectly.

The writer chooses movie as an object material because the writer loves watching movie. The writer can get some information about condition or the culture from the other place. The people can learn many things from the character or story of the movie such as emotional, psychology, love, skills, knowledge and etc. Each elements of movie will guide people to the message of the movie.

In the other hand The Fault in Our Stars is movie that published in 2014 and have been watched worldwide by its audience. In this paper the writer choose this movie because it is a great, touching, romantic, inspiring, and motivation movie. This movie an American romantic drama film directed by Josh Boone, based on the novel of the same name by John Green. Beside that movie star in this movie is very well known, they are Shailene Woodley as Hazel Grace and Ansel Elgort as Augustus Waters. In this movie the love as motivation to the character is very strong and romantic, and the main character has ability to build of love.

The writer chooses love as a motivation of life to the main character as a title because the writer wants to know what types of love used by the main character and how can love motivated to the main character in this movie.

What the writer concentrates here is the assumption that the main character of this movie is about love as a motivation between two main character that have cancer. The writer wants to raise the problem of main character in this movie which is very interesting to explore. This in entitled “LOVE AS A MOTIVATION OF LIFE TO THE MAIN CHARACTER IN THE FAULT IN OUR STARS MOVIE DIRECTED BY JOSH BOONE”.

1.2 Statement of the Problem

Based on the background of the study, the writer tries to get the answer to the following question:

1. What types of love of main character used ?
2. How can love motivate the main character ?

1.3 Scope of the Problem

The writer focuses on the main character in The Fault in Our Stars movie. The writer wants to find types of love and how love can be motivated through the character of Hazel and August.
1.4 Method and Procedures of the Analysis

The writer uses library research: collect some theories from the library and other media, such as internet. The method of this research is descriptive qualitative method, because the writer explains the analysis and the result of analysis in description.

The procedures itself are: first, the writer choose and watches the movie for several times intensively, second, the writer finds out some theories to assist the analysis and identifies the data which contains love as a motivation of life, third, the writer analyzes the data by using theory, fourth, the writer concludes the analysis, and fifth, the writer writes the Final Assignment about this analysis.
