CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background and Reason for Choosing the Title

Literature is a literary work which tells an incident, situation, or feelings of the author. It could occur due to experience or from the author's imagination. Then, literary works can be classified according to whether it is poetry, fiction or non-fiction, dramas. There are many aspects of literary works one is movie. Movie is taken as the object of analysis in this paper.

As one of literary works, movie depicts the social life with the imagination of the director. Watching the movie is one of the few favorite things that people do, because it becomes an interesting activity like that. People are free to choose the movie they want such as: romantic drama, comedy, adventure, action, and others. Movies' visualisation stories are usually presented in television, cinema or theater. This movie may be classified by several things. First, the movie is distinguished by the form or genre, which is then categorized into drama, action, animation, and more. Secondly, the movie is divided by type, such as fiction and non-fiction.

The story in the movie was produced by the presence of actors and actresses who take certain characters. Each character in movies makes the audience be interested in following the story in the movie, get the feeling of the story, and it can feel as if into the story. Characters role in a movie are shown in several ways. At the end of the movie, the director usually has a message to convey to the audience that relates to real life. It is intended to make the audience not feeling useless of watching movies.

Movie is one of the mass media are used as a means of entertainment. It serves as a modern facility which is used to disseminate information to the community. The film became one of the mass media are quite effective in conveying information.

One of the interesting aspects to be discussed about the main character of a movie is the psychology aspect that related to the personality, for example; Introversion or Extroversion. People see many characters with different personality and can differentiate their personality as introvert or extrovert. The writer wants to discuss about extroversion because it’s quite interesting and relatable to the writer, the writer is very curious to know how the extroversion behave and what is the background of the extrovert personality and also about the communication of extrovert with other people in general.

RealityHigh is a film which tells the life of two teenagers who are friends since childhood, but at the time of their age has already begun to teens friendship they broke up. because there is a jealousy that made them break up. the character of Alexa Medina showed a figure of extrovert, the writer likes the movie so the writer chooses it as a material for this paper. With all the reasons above the writer chooses the title: EXTROVERSION OF THE MAIN CHARACTER IN REALITYHIGH MOVIE DIRECTED BY FERNANDO LEBRIJA.
1.2 Statement of Problem

In this paper, the writer tries to discuss about some problems about Extroversion based on the movie. Therefore, the writer states some of the problems below:

1. What are the signs of the main character extrovert in the RealityHigh movie?
2. What is the cause of the main character extrovert in the RealityHigh movie?

1.3 Scope of the Problem

This paper focuses mainly to discuss about the main character in RealityHigh movie, named Alexa Medina. In the movie, there are two things that the writer wants to discuss. First is about the sign that makes the main character as an extrovert. Second is about the cause of the main character’s extroversion.

1.4 Method and Procedure of The Analysis

This paper uses descriptive qualitative method. The writer analysis it the analysis by watching the movie a couple of times repeatedly. Then the writer evaluates the problems in the movie. The writer analyzed the movie from dialogue and every scene of the picture. She correlated the analysis through some theories she has taken.