INTRODUCTION

1.1. Background and Reason of Choosing The Title

English has become popular from time to time because English is now emerging in various aspects, for example in the types of literature. By learning English, people can understand various types of literature from around the world, because English is an important point in communicating between countries. Speaking in English is one of the requirements to improve career in work, and can speak English is also important to communicate because the progress of the times is very rapid for the next few years.

People only knows the monotonous kind of literary works, while literature also develops from time to time. Literary works can be used for experience in work because anyone can express thoughts in a writing that has artistic value. Literary work also functions as a social control which expresses the life of the community, therefore the work of literature is strongly related to the community. By studying literature, people can also increase our networks, hobbies, and knowledge. Literature can give people a lot of thing if we learn to understand it.

Literary works have several kinds, one of them is movie. Movie is one form of literature that displays sound and also images, so it is not surprising if the movie has many fans, because movie is a type of literature that the audiences will not get boring when enjoying it. The acting of the actors and actresses, the setting of the movie making, and various reasons to make movie become popular. The writer himself likes movies because of various themes presented. With the development of the times, the themes of the movies are also developing. One of the best-selling themes is the theme of romantic comedy, science fiction, and action.
One of them in the Aquaman movie which takes the theme of action. The action theme supported by advanced technology displays cool scenes and looks like real, so the audience feels the tension and excitement that the director wants to highlight in the movie. Aquaman's movie also shows the struggle of the main character played by Jason Momoa in seizing the throne that should be him. For this reason, struggle becomes the main thing highlighted in this movie because it is the struggle that can bring the success of the main character to achieve his main goal.

The struggle that was taken seriously by Aquaman finally paid off with the victory that he reached. Aquaman's struggle to get recognition from the citizens of Atlantis seemed to have been experienced by almost everyone in living life. The theme of struggle is also felt to be closer to the community, so this theme can inspire many people to not give up easily when trying to achieve their goals.

The writer gives the title "Struggle of Main Character in Aquaman Movie Directed by James Wan" because the writer wants to discuss in depth about the struggle and perseverance carried out by Aquaman until he become the king of the ocean as his mother wanted him to be. Besides his own desires and destiny, Aquaman is also a figure whose tenacity is needed to be trusted to hold the throne of the entire ocean.
